Election/Restrictions

1. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Inventions I (Claims 1-10) and II (Claims 11-15) and III (claims 16-18) and IV (claims 19-24) and V (claims 25-27) are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions I, II, III, IV and V have different modes of operation.

- In Invention I (Claims 1-10), the process variable transmitter comprising the limitation “a transmitter output circuit” and “an isolated circuit” as recited in claim 1.
- In Invention II (Claims 11-15), the transmitter comprising: “positive and negative leads”, “a loop current controller”, “a first regulator”. “a second regulator” “a first load” and “a second load” as recited in claim 11.
- In Invention III (Claims 16-18), the process variable transmitter comprising: “a controller area network output”, “a current limiter circuit”, “a recessive driver circuit” and “a dominant driver circuit” as recited in claim 16.
- In Invention IV (Claims 19-24), the process variable transmitter comprising: “a microcontroller”, “an EEPROM circuit” and “a controller area network circuit” as recited in claim 19.
- In Invention V (Claims 25-27), the process variable transmitter comprising: “a microcontroller”, “a controller” and “a diagnostic circuit” as recited in claim 25.

They are mutually exclusive and can be operated independently.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

2. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
